GLOBE THEATRE CONCLUDES 09|10 SEASON WITH
IBSEN'S CLASSIC A DOLL'S HOUSE

REGINA – Groundbreaking and controversial when first published in 1879, Henrik Ibsen's A Doll's House challenged the conventional norms of playwrighting, and audiences everywhere were rocked by what came to be known as “the door slam heard around the world”.

Over one hundred years later, Frank McGuinness' adaptation of the work can be seen on Globe Theatre's stage when the 2009|2010 Main Stage season concludes with A Doll's House, directed by David Latham.

The cast features Jerry Franken as Dr. Rank, Regina's Jonelle Gunderson as Helene, Vanessa Holmes as Mrs. Linde, Anne McGrath as Anne-Marie, Tova Smith as Nora, Jeffrey Wetsch as Torvald and Rylan Wilkie as Krogstad and The Messenger.

Director David Latham is joined by Lorenzo Savoini as Costume & Set Designer, Michael Whitfield as Lighting Designer, Lisa Russell as Stage Manager, Esther Howie as Assistant Stage Manager and Mark Claxton as Assistant to the Director.

A Doll's House runs on Globe Theatre's Main Stage from April 21 to May 8, 2010.
