

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – January 6, 2010

Local Artists Create Cabaret-Style Show for Shumiatcher Sandbox Series.

REGINA – Regina artists Melanie Hankewich and Jeremy Sauer, members of jazz trio The Continuos, are embarking on a musical adventure as creators of the second show in the Shumiatcher Sandbox Series. The Unforeseen Journey of Nathaniel Dunbar & Other Tales of Whimsical Sadness combines the sounds of a toy piano, accordion, double bass and drums for a musical narrative that tells the story of Nathaniel Dunbar. Vintage photographs contribute to the stylized feel of this cabaret show.

Hankewich and Sauer are joined by local artists Jody Mario (Drums) and Elizabeth Curry (Double Bass and third Continuos member) for this production, one surely to live up to its long name.

The Unforeseen Journey of Nathaniel Dunbar & Other Tales of Whimsical Sadness runs from January 28th to February 6th, 2010 as part of the Shumiatcher Sandbox Series at Globe Theatre.

Visit www.globetheatrelive.com for tickets or show information.

Contact Marketing Assistant Kristin Beahm with interview requests at kristinb@globetheatrelive.com or 924.2835.

-30-

CONTACT:

Kristin Beahm

Marketing Assistant | Globe Theatre | 306.924.2835 | kristinb@globetheatrelive.com

